

Penwa' Mawi-Amskwesewey L'nue'kati
Benoit 1st Nation

Interview Questions:

1. A. This job involves travel (such as working for the Pow-wow committee in Flat Bay for a weekend), as well as visiting local Mi'kmaq Elders to conduct a Mi'kmaq historic interview and collect photos and other travel as required. Do you have a valid driver's license and access to a vehicle?

B. Are you bondable? Are you able to greet people in a pleasant and respectful manner?

C. Cellphone personal usage is limited to before work, during breaks and after work. Is this a problem?

2. This job involves working with Mi'kmaq children, organizing activities that will expose them to our traditions and culture – as well as working with a Mi'kmaq elder from time to time. Also doing Mi'kmaw Centre and Mi'kmaw Cemetery grounds keeping. Do you self-identify as a Mi'kmaq person? Are you familiar with Mi'kmaq society? Are you willing to learn?

-
3. It is required that applicants for this position to have previously volunteered in some capacity for the betterment of the community. What volunteer work have you done, for who and when? Have you done any fundraising before? Have you worked with children before?

 4. Computer skills are required for this position in order to prepare daily, weekly and final reports as well as with the Mi'kmaq Elder interviews. Do you have any experience using Microsoft excel or other comparable software?

 5. This job may be best suited for a college or university student taking community studies, sociology, early childhood learning or education related programming. We are interviewing for the position of Mi'kmaw Student Facilitator. Why should we hire you? Will you be able to carry out the duties required as listed on the job order and other duties we require of you?

 6. Unacceptable behaviors include using cell phone/social media for personal use while working, being disrespectful, not doing duties required of you, not showing initiative, being uncooperative, and not following orders. Do you understand that you will be hired for a two-week probation period that will be followed by a review of your work performance and you will be replaced if you have been found to be unsuitable for this position?

Date:

Print Name:

Signature: